Vendor Application

Thank you for your interest in our annual festival. The 4th annual Big Red Ball Charitable Foundation's Chili with a Kick event benefiting Youth Home will be happening February 25th at Dickey Stephen's Park. This year's event will include fun and games, draft style Kickball tournament, a chili cook-off, a jalapeño eating contest, live music, arts and crafts from Etsy artists, and legendary fare from Hot Dog Mike. CWAK has attracted 1000+ patrons and raised collectively over $14,000 for Youth Home at past events.

Booth Space: Booth Spaces are 8 x 8. You may reserve one or more spaces. All spaces are outside along the right side of Dickey Stephens' concourse area. No stakes may be used to secure tents or canopies. Vendors must supply all set up equipment such as tents, tables, etc. Electricity is not guaranteed to be available.

Cost: The cost of one space is $100 if paid by February 1, 2012. After the due date the cost will be $150. This booth fee entitles you to the space and 1 guest. While at the event you can sample as much free chili as you like. We will list your information on the event website for one year and Amber Estrada will promote your involvement through the Etsy network. Event fliers will also be distributed advertising your involvement. *Etsy/Local Artist vendors can donate $150 in merchandise to be used in the Chili with a Kick kick-off party silent auction on 2/24/2012 in lieu of the $100 booth fee. This may be a coupon to be used at your Etsy site or in person at the event. 100% of your booth fee/merchandise donated is tax deductible.

Check-in Policy: Check in begins at 8:00 AM on Saturday morning. You must check in at the check-in booth located in Dickey – Stephens' main entrance before you begin to set-up your area. If you have not checked in or contacted one of the festival directors prior by 10:00 AM we will assume you are not attending the festival and your space will be forfeited and reassigned from our waiting list.

Set Up and Hours of Operation: Booths must be set up by 11:00 AM and must not be taken down before 5:00 PM. All vehicles must be out of the main entrance area by 10:30 AM and cannot return until after 5:00 PM. Please remember to leave your booth space in the condition it was found in. Please remove all of your trash.

Refunds: Absolutely no refunds will be given. The event will be held rain or shine.
